FIFTEEN CENTS

To final four State Fever hits Sequoit gridders

When the varsity Sequoits walk onto Soldier Field at 1 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 20, they will be trying to take that final step that has eluded previous Sequoit squads in recent years.

The Sequoits advanced to the semi-finals of the IHSA state tournament by defeating Chicago Tilden, 30-20, Nov. 13 and now advance to the game tentatively scheduled for Nov. 20 at Soldier Field.

In 1979, the Sequoit gridders advanced to the final four, only to lose, and in 1981 the Sequoit basketball team advanced to the final eight.

This year's squad hopes to sample the sweet taste of a state championship and as in the past, state championship fever has gripped the Antioch community.

Tickets for the game will be on sale Thursday and Friday at Antioch High School. Admission will be $3. Bus arrangements will be similar to those last Saturday when 17 busses went to Gately Stadium in Chicago. Information is available from the school.

For an update of game and transportation information see this week's Antioch Reporter.

Saturday's opponent, Paul Robeson High School, lost earlier this season to Tilden, Antioch's victim Saturday, and gained a berth in the state playoffs as a wildcard team.

Antioch Head Coach Steve Wapon reports that Robeson has pretty good size, does a lot of things on defense, "and they're quick and bigger than Tilden."

"They have a good throwing quarterback and a good running attack, but their defense hasn't been tested in the air. Nobody has tried to throw on them," said Wapon.

An all school-all community pep rally to cheer the Antioch sequoit football team on to the quarter finals, will be held at 2 p.m., on Friday, Nov. 19, at the north gym of the high school.

For complete information on Antioch's victories over Lake Forest and Tilden, see Pages 7 and 8.

Antioch has Picasso

The Antioch Beautification and Erection Committee, made up of William Brook, Jack Fields, Dr. James Kopriva and Pierre LaPlant, have presented "Antioch's Picasso" to Jay Dziki, president of Antioch's Lions Club, for his outstanding contributions to the people of Antioch.

If one studies the sculpture carefully, one might be able to discern the three silhouettes in its makeup. The first represents an Indian, the second a pilgrim and the third an astronaut.

According to Dave Bushing, the sculpture is the result of the 1976 sale of ceramic plates emblazoned with a picture of the Hiram Buttrick Sawmill by the Lions.

An Antioch High School student won the contest with the three-silhouette design that represents 200 years of progress.

The sculpture, now on display at the real estate firm owned by Dziki, will be placed in Williams Park.

Arrest 2 for home burglaries

After arresting an Antioch High School student for possession of marijuana on Tuesday, Nov. 9, an investigation conducted by the Antioch Police Dept. led to the arrest of one juvenile and one adult for the recent burglaries of two homes in the area.

Jewelry was recovered from the burglary of a home on North Ave. The two were also charged with burglarizing a home in Morley Subdivision.

Both of the accused were turned over to the Lake County Sheriff's Dept.

Marilyn Muth trial postponed

The trial of Marilyn Muth, charged with perpetrating a toy scam against 15 Antioch residents last Christmas season, has again been continued, over the objections of the state.

The trial will take place at 9 a.m., on Monday, Dec. 6, in front of Lake County Circuit Court Judge William Homer.

Muth, who also faces similar charges in another county, allegedly took money from Antioch residents promising to get toys for them through a catalogue company. She received a downpayment but no toys were ever received.

Two children live

Bury DeGroot family

Anne DeGroot, 27, known to local residents as Anne Vaughn when she attended Antioch High School and later as Anne Mahar, was buried on Friday, Nov. 12, from St. Patrick's Church in Wadsworth.

Services for her daughter, Maureen Mahar, 8, and her son Robert DeGroot, 18 months, were held at the same time.

The three were shot and killed by a rifle in the hands of Anne's estranged husband, and the two DeGroot children's father, Robert DeGroot, 31, Park City, in their Fox Lake Hills home on Tuesday, Nov. 9.

Three-month old Ian DeGroot, who was also wounded when he was found in his mother's arms, is presently recovering at Children's Memorial Hospital, Chicago.

DeGroot, who shot and killed himself, immediately after shooting his estranged family, was buried in Gurnee on Saturday, Nov. 13.

Rev. George Dyer, pastor of St. Patrick

Church, said that DeGroot, who owned a music store in Waukegan, had sought counseling from him a few hours before the murder-suicide.

Reports have the pastor immediately notifying the Park City Police that DeGroot might be suicidal but they arrived at his home after he had left for his estranged wife's house.

Friends and family members said that DeGroot was depressed over the impending divorce and "kept fantasizing that they would get back together."

"He was a sick man, and he was also upset about business problems" said one of the relatives.

Meagan Mahar, 9, a fourth child arrived home after the shootings.

DeGroot shot himself in the throat. His wife was shot several times in the chest and abdomen and the other two children died of single gun-shot wounds.

The names of the first paramedics in the state of Illinois, are well known to local residents: Dan Dugenske, Michael Haley, Thomas Haley, Roy Witek, Robert Wilton, William Wilton, Lew Simon, Gordon Volling, David Heath, Chuck Larson, Rob White and Jim Fields.

Dugenske, Tom Haley, Volling, White and Fields are still active members of the rescue squad and Heath, who is still actively certified as a paramedic, is presently in command of the squad.

Knolls drainage ditch has long term solution

by GLORIA DAVIS

Antioch's Mayor Ray Toft thinks that the Oakwood Knolls drainage ditch problem will cost "a lot more than $150,000," at its completion, and he is looking for the finality to be "quite a way down the road."

"Tile or some kind of a drainage ditch will have to be eventually run all the way under the railroad, down by the old lumber yard to Sequoit Creek," he added.

The problem surfaced at a recent village board meeting and it concerns a 15 foot by 15 foot drainage ditch that presently contains about 10 feet of storm sewer drainage water that flows from about two-thirds of the property in Oakwood Knolls.

"We haven't had that many complaints or problems up to now," Toft said.

"It's just that Realtor Mike Warren has a purchaser for four acres of the property and the purchaser doesn't want the ditch on his property," Toft remarked.

According to the mayor, the present drainage ditch that runs south off of North Ave., west of the homes on Garys Dr., was put in ("Not while I was in office," Toft was quick to say.) sometime in the late 1970's.

At that time the developer of that property wanted the ditch located there with intentions of putting in retention ponds because of plans for a large home development there.

Those plans never materialized and the open drainage ditch is left with some of the surrounding property owners afraid of subsequent danger for the area children.

It also seems that, at the time of the present ditch's inception, the village failed to get a proper easement with a legal property description on it signed.

To solve the immediate problem, the village board has instructed Village Atty. Ken Clark to meet with Warren and the purchaser for negotiations which are expected to result in either putting tile under the ditch or moving it all together.

Village Trustee Claudette Skvarce was upset at the immediate approximated cost of $150,000 and the discussion that ensued at the board meeting on paying for the project with a possible special assessment on the property that is serviced by the drainage ditch.

"The village just can't make a mistake and expect the property owners to pay for it," she said.

But Toft also said that he didn't think that a special assessment was the answer.

Clark said that he expected to meet with Warren and the proposed purchaser within the next few weeks.

Paramedics fete 10th as first in state

The Antioch Rescue Squad was honored for having the first paramedic unit in the state of Illinois, a unit that is now 10 years old, having begun functioning in 1972.

Among the recognitions received was a letter from Gov. James Thompson in which he said, "I am proud, as you all should be, of the outstanding work you have done. Your innovative techniques led the way for the entire state and the whole country for better health care services for people stricken at home or on the job."

That letter will be framed and hung on the Stage revue

'Pennypacker' family fare

by GLORIA DAVIS

Pa Pennypacker has returned to the stage of PM?L, two families and all. The story's the same as it was but the cast is different.

Lyn Kessie does a good job of directing this large cast, mostly juveniles, in telling the story of a turn of the century lothario who maintains two large families in separate towns.

Don Crop fills the bill as the somewhat eccentric Pennypacker, while Anne Marie Cina is at her best in the last scene, after she finds out about her husband's other family.

Frank Greenwood turns in his usual well-done character performance as Dr. Fridel and Paul Beemsterboer's emoting as his son Wilbur is well taken, although he is in need of a few body language lessons.

Even though no Shirley Temple or Roddy McDowal surfaced in the large cast of children, they all did themselves proud since cute children on a stage can do little wrong.

The Victorian stage set is outstanding and the stagebill gives most of the credit for that to Tim Holt.

"Pennypacker" is a show for the entire family, despite the fact that the wordy script could lessen its appeal to some active younger members of the audience.

Scouts' spaghetti success

The Scouts, parents, and friends of Boy Scouts of America Troop 92 served over 500 dinners and over 300 "seconds" during their annual fundraiser at the Antioch Moose Lodge.

It was one of Chief Chef Dick Stroner's busiest years in his 21-year service.

The evening concluded with an exciting raffle. Benjamin Barr won the first grand prize, a Schwinn-BMX bike donated by Chuck Hanson of Antioch Schwinn Cyclery.

Bob Carter won the $50 savings bond presented by Jeff Mulder of First National Bank of Antioch. "Trip" Fridel won the $50 savings bond presented by William Mingotti of State Bank of Antioch.

The Time Machine

FIFTY YEARS AGO: Nov. 17, 1932

Ads in the News were hawking women's shoes for $2.85 and men's shoes for $3.

Florence Hackett was the newest member of the Antioch Girl Scout Troop.

John Horan was elected president of the Holy Name Society at St. Peter's Church.

Lloyd Atwell was named the state 4-H champion for the third year in a row.

Einar Beyer, Paul Neilsen and Ward Wilton all won firsts in the Antioch High School's exhibits in the poultry and grain show in Dundee.

Chase Webb was busy decorating his new store, that was about to open, in orange and blue with light colored walls. The store was to be called "A Shield of Quality."

THIRTY YEARS AGO: Nov. 13, 1952

The First National Bank of Antioch was robbed by two hoodlums with sawed-off shotguns. Cashier Ed Sletten was in Chicago in connection with the identification and sentencing of the robbers who held up the bank in 1950 at the time.

The Lake County Sheriff's Dept. arrested the robbers in McHenry, less than an hour after the robbery.

Joe Patrovsky was appointed to the Antioch Grade School Board when Wendell Nelson resigned.

Steve Pacini was honored for his two paintings of Sequoia Indian heads at the end of the Antioch High School gym.

TEN YEARS AGO: Nov. 15, 1972

Marilyn Sterbenz formed the Lake County Clerks Assn.

Dave Dziki was named the most improved player on the Sequoia football team; Tom Pfahler, the most valuable and Glen Amundsen was the team captain.

Dennis Volling and Barbara Kufalk were among the turkey winners in the Antioch News' first annual turkey drawing.

Because of its great popularity, for the first time in the history of the PM&L Theater, the current production, "Man From La Mancha," was held over another weekend.

Johnny Reimer topped all other super-modified drivers at the Illinois Racing Assn.'s banquet, winning three separate titles.

When I think about it

My birthday suit is my favorite outfit

by GLORIA DAVIS

As I write this column I'm suffering with after-birthday letdown. It was such fun that I hate to think that another whole year has to go by before I have another one.

Now I can already hear some of my many detractors mumbling, "You'd think anyone her age would go out of her way to forget her birthday."

No way, I'm much too materialistic! I love opening all those mysterious packages.

But about five years ago I decided that the heat from all those candles and my hot flashes just didn't mix, so all my friends and family members have been notified that we still celebrate the natal day but I'm subtracting a year each time instead of adding one.

That way we save on the cost of the candles and I still get my special day without being reminded of that depressing age factor.

What fun to be a grandmother working her way back towards the sexy 30's! When you see me sporting ballerina shoes and a poodle skirt, you'll know I'm going through those terrible teen traumas.

I will admit, that now that my children are grown, those mysterious packages wouldn't take a Columbo, to figure out their contents.

Since those packages no longer contain $2 bottles of asfixiating cologne from the five and 10 that I was forced to rave about, I've found I might as well drop a few well placed hints during the week before the big day.

This results in some pretty good loot although I really don't remember asking for a nine-foot suit of armor.

And even though, I loved the flower arrangement I got from the younger people in the office, there's something about getting a huge flower arrangement adorned with a satin bow from those in a lower age bracket that reeks of intentions of pre-funeral enjoyment.

If your birthday falls on a weekend and if your celebrants include family, friends and business associates, you can stretch the party over several days. So can you blame me for my post natal depression?

So here's to birthdays, they don't ever get old, (and neither will I) they just get better.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Since old Annie Mae is one of PM&L's top fans, I really enjoyed seeing the return of "The Remarkable Mr. Penypacker" last weekend.

Did you know that besides that production, "Guys and Dolls" and "Somebody Loves Opal," those outstanding thespians haven't repeated another play in over 20 years of crowded theatrical seasons?

How about those Sequoia gridmen! State championship here we come!

Congrats to one of Uncle Sam's smarter boys, Air Force Capt. Norbert C. Tagge, son of Norma Tagge, Lake Villa, has completed the Air Force Inst. of Technology program and received his master's degree in research and development management.

And here's to another outstanding Antioch area member of the military, Martin Luiofs, son of Gwendoline Luiofs, who has been promoted in the U.S. Air Force under the stripes for exceptional performers program to the rank of master sergeant. He is an administration technician with the 836th Air Division at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, Ariz.

Condolences to the Vaughn family on the terrible tragedy that took their daughter and grandchild from them.

Stanley Lech tells me that all Antioch residents are invited to participate in an awards night honoring Glenn A. Learmont.

At 7 p.m., on Saturday, Nov. 20, Learmont will be honored for saving the lives of Peggy Page, Chris Mars, Brenda Volling and Arthur Py, Jr., in a July 25 boating accident.

Both the Sequoia Masonic Lodge 827 AF and AM and the Loyal Order of the Moose 525 are sponsoring this presentation of an Outstanding Citizen Award plaque.

More congrats, this time to an outstanding businessman from Antioch, Al Exner. Exner was named "Outstanding Rookie" at the Novus Super Session '82, held in Minneapolis in October.

Exner, owner of Galaxy Windshield Repair, received the award for being in business for less than a year and demonstrating outstanding technical ability as well as adding four associates in Racine and Kenosha counties to his organization.

St. Peter's netters start season

On Sunday, Oct. 31, the St. Peter sixth, seventh and eighth grade basketball teams faced the Montini Mustangs.

The sixth grade team lost 25-16.

The lead scorer was Ken Litchfield with 10 points. Litchfield and Scott Elichek had a good defensive game.

The seventh grade team won 56-31. The lead scorer was Scott Frasch with 17 points and Steve Dittrich who had a good defensive game.

The eighth grade team lost 45-29. John Shaffer was the leading scorer with six points and Sean McDermott had a good defensive game.

On Monday, Nov. 1, the seventh and eighth grade teams played the Transfiguration Chargers.

The seventh grade team won 60-19. The lead scorer was Steve Dittrich with 17 points and Al Schroeder who had a good defensive game.

The eighth grade team lost 60-19.

The lead scorer was Mark Carpenter with eight points and Jeff Sokulski and John Shaffer both had a good defensive game.

Sequoit 'pigs' stop Scouts in the trenches

by MICHAEL H. BABICZ
Sports Editor

It was the offensive line of Antioch which Steve Wapon, head coach, credited with the Sequoits 15-6 opening round victory over visiting Lake Forest in the Illinois High School Assn. Class 5A football playoffs.

"The patience of the offensive line, the interior people, with staying with what we were trying to do," Wapon said sparked the second half surge which lifted Antioch to victory.

"Their doing their job was crucial," he continued. "We've been balanced between running and throwing all year, and they're responsible for the success we've had doing both."

Under less than desirable playing conditions following heavy rainfall throughout the day and night before the game on Wednesday, Nov. 10, the "pigs" as they are sometimes jokingly nicknamed by coaches had to live up to that title.

Besides those in the trenches on the offense for Antioch, Wapon also praised his defensive corps which was faced with some of the top offensive blockers in Lake County along with a difficult, well-executed wishbone option offense by the Scouts.

"Our run defense, other than the first play, was excellent," Wapon said.

The "first play," he referred to was Lake Forest's opening offensive play on which the Scout quarterback went for a touchdown to put the visitor's only points of the afternoon on the board.

"The entire defensive unit was instrumental in playing a good, sound defensive ball game after the first play," Wapon added.

Lake Forest quarterback Tony Hoban stunned the estimated 4,000-plus fans that packed Antioch Stadium as the senior signalcaller rammed 38 yards through a gaping hole in the Antioch defensive line on the Scouts first offensive play of the afternoon.

The extra-point kick sailed wide and the host Sequoits suddenly found themselves down 6-0.

Lake Forest's score was set up when John Flusser blocked a punt attempt by the Sequoits with Scout teammate Alan Cascarano recovering it on the Antioch 38-yard line.

Aided by a 22-yard pass from senior quarterback Tom Adams to junior receiver John Humphreys, the Sequoits began to show some offense on their next possession.

The Lake Forest defense put a stop to that, however, as senior Mike McDermand, who played an exceptional game in the secondary for the Scouts all afternoon, picked off an Adams pass on the Lake Forest 27-yard line.

Midway through the second quarter, Lake Forest's Hoban, who also plays safety, intercepted a pass and, with a personal foul for unnecessary roughness added on to the return, the Scouts were on the Antioch 40-yard line.

Four plays later, after moving to the Sequoit 25-yard line, the Scouts scoring threat was stopped as Antioch junior defensive back Dan Berkiel intercepted a pass at his own nine-yard line and returned it to the 12.

Three plays later, in ironic fashion, the Sequoits got a first down at their own 17-yard line.

Lake Forest's Robert Medica intercepted a pass, and while returning it, fumbled, with Antioch junior end Bryan Becker recovering it for the Sequoits allowing them to regain possession.

Following a Sequoit punt, the Scouts began pounding back once again.

Berkiel was in the right spot again, as he seemed to have a nose for the ball in the second period, as he picked off a pass with less than one minute remaining in the half and returned it to the Sequoit 29-yard line.

Despite some indecision on the part of the Sequoits as to whether or not to let the clock run out, a desperation pass from Adams to senior runningback Tom Anderson in the end zone fell incomplete.

On Antioch's first possession of the second half, the Sequoits began to mount some offense.

Beginning at their own 38-yard line, the Sequoits faced a fourth down and one situation on the Lake Forest two-yard line.

George Bessette, senior fullback, who had been stopped for no gain one play earlier, vaulted up and over the linemen of both sides.

As Bessette landed, however, the ball popped out with Lake Forest's Guy Bryant recovering.

Bessette had begun the drive with a 11-yard run on the first play as the longest rushing gain during the series.

Adams completed one pass during the drive, a 14-yard gain to Humphreys.

The Antioch defense rose to the occasion, refusing to let the Scouts out of trouble after the visitors had taken over two yards from their own end zone.

George Barry, Lake Forest head coach, elected to take an intentional delay of game penalty, which moved the Scouts back to their two and one-half yard line.

Following a Scout time out, Barry's quarterback, junior Tarn Sublett, who was replacing Hoban who had injured a shoulder late in the first half, took the snap and ran out of the end zone.

This gave the Sequoits a safety which cut their deficit to 6-2 with 1:01 remaining in the third quarter.

That play would later come back to haunt Barry and the Scouts, as it seemed to change the complexion of the game.

The purpose of the safety was to avoid a blocked punt or giving the Sequoits good field position.

The former was achieved, but the later not as Antioch's return of the short kick gave the Sequoits the ball at the Scout 49-yard line.

Adams connected with Bryan Becker on a 10-yard pass with pass interference being called on the Scouts on the next play, giving Antioch a first down on the 14-yard line.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Dr. R. A. Sand,

OPTOMETRIST

STRABISMUS: "CROSSED EYES"

Strabismus, sometimes called "crossed eyes" by the layman, is an eye problem in early life. It describes two eyes that are not perfectly parallel when viewing an object. If left uncorrected, and one eye is used all the time to the exclusion of the other, the "lazy" eye will fail to develop normal vision.

Although a certain amount of random divergence is common in infants, children past the age of one or one and a half should be able to hold both eyes in alignment. Although strabismus is often very obvious, it is frequently impossible to spot with the naked eye. Only a complete eye exam will ascertain its existence.

Sometimes a combination of eyeglasses and eye exercises will take care of the problem or the use of an eye patch if only one eye is involved. In more serious cases, surgery to reposition the eye muscle may be required.

It will not cure itself and it is more than a cosmetic problem. If not corrected by age six, it may be too late for the child to learn to use both eyes together for normal vision.

Sequoit aerial circus sends gridders to IHSA final 4

by MICHAEL H. BABICZ
Sports Editor

It was the day of the pass for Antioch's varsity football team in semi-final Illinois High School Assn. Class 5A action Saturday, Nov. 13.

The Sequoit defense had five interceptions of Tilden Blue Devil passes, while quarterback Tom Adams completed 13 of 25 attempts for a total of 111 yards including two touchdown throws.

The result was a 30-20 Sequoit victory over the Blue Devils.

The victory, Antioch's 10th in a row, advances them to quarterfinal action against Robeson on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20.

The game is scheduled for either Soldier Field or Gately Stadium in Chicago.

Tilden's speed showed quickly as the Blue Devils struck late in the first quarter on a 41-yard touchdown run.

In just over one minute later Antioch took the lead.

Adams, under pressure, connected with junior end Bryan Becker on a 28-yard touchdown pass.

Derek Olsen's extra-point kick put the Sequoits in the lead 7-6.

Antioch junior defensive tackle Ed Schwind intercepted a pass on the opening play of the second quarter to set up the next Sequoit score.

Four plays later, Adams connected with John Humphreys on a 19-yard touchdown pass as the junior receiver split two Blue Devil defenders at the goal line for the score.

Olsen's kick made it 14-6, Antioch, with 10:02 remaining.

Midway through the period, Tilden scored on a 67-yard touchdown pass.

Antioch junior linebacker Robert Jiracek tackled the Tilden quarterback for a loss to stop the two-point conversion attempt which would have tied the game.

An interception by Antioch senior linebacker Bill Carney late in the half went for naught as Tilden intercepted a Adams aerial with less than one minute remaining on the Blue Devil 15-yard line.

Four plays later, Schwind recovered a fumble on the Tilden 20-yard line with eight seconds remaining in the half.

An illegal motion penalty against the Sequoits moved them back five yards, with Steve Wapon, head coach, electing to have Olsen attempt a 42-yard field goal into somewhat of a cross wind from the northwest.

The line drive kick just cleared the uprights as time expired to lift the Sequoits to a 17-12 halftime advantage.

A poor kick by the Blue Devils gave Antioch the ball on Tilden's 33-yard line.

A 16-yard screen pass from Adams to John Mahar, which was dropped and picked up again by Mahar, moved the Sequoits quickly.

When the Tilden coach came onto the field to protest that Mahar failed to have control of the ball long enough, he was charged with a time out.

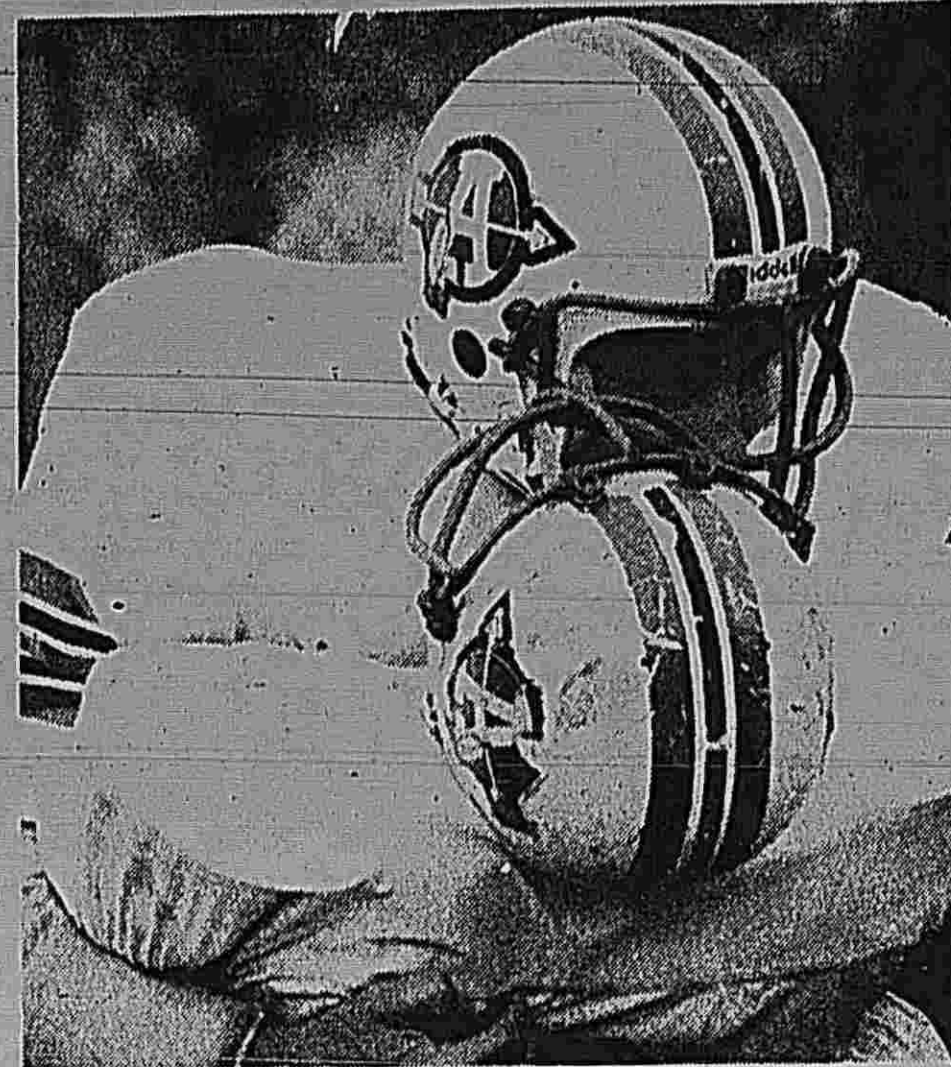

Two plays later, a Tilden defender stepped in front of Olsen to intercept a pass on the goal line, temporarily stopping the Sequoit scoring threat.

A reverse attempt by the Blue Devils on third down was broken up by Antioch senior defensive end Jerry Haling, who tackled both the quarterback and the end.

A high snap on the punt attempt went over the Blue Devil punter's head, with Haling providing the pressure and making the tackle giving Antioch the ball on the Tilden two-yard line.

After knocking on the door twice during the period, the Sequoits finally were able to score as Mahar went around the left side of the Antioch offensive line on a one-yard run for the touchdown.

Olsen's extra-point kick put the Sequoits up 24-12 with VICTORY HUG — Unidentified Sequoit gives John Mahar big hug after one-yard touchdown run in third quarter, as Antioch beat Tilden 30-20, to gain berth in state semi finals. just over one minute remaining in the third quarter.

Tilden struck back quickly, scoring on a drive on its next possession which carried over into the early part of the fourth quarter.

The Blue Devils scored with a 13-yard run on a fourth down play after two passes were almost intercepted by the Sequoits.

The two-point conversion run brought the Blue Devils within four points at 24-20 with 9:31 remaining in the game.

After Antioch was forced to punt, Tilden had a pass intercepted by junior defensive back Craig Prather.

The turnover gave the Sequoits the ball on the Tilden 31-yard line.

Two plays later, Bessette scored on a 31-yard run as he bounced off would-be tacklers to give the Sequoits and their fans some breathing room.

Senior defensive back John Silianoff intercepted a Tilden pass on the Sequoit 30-yard line with 4:11 remaining in the game.

Tilden used its final two time outs during the next Sequoit series, with Antioch punting with just over three minutes remaining.

Tilden blocked the punt giving the Blue Devils the ball on the Sequoit 25-yard line with 3:07 left in the game.

Following three incomplete passes by Tilden, Antioch's Craig Sheedlo intercepted a Blue Devil pass at the Sequoit 11-yard line and returned it to the Tilden 29-yard line.

Since Tilden had exhausted its allotted time outs, the Sequoits were able to run out the clock.

Bessette was the leading Antioch rusher for the game with 25 carries totaling 104 yards.

In pass receiving, Bryan Becker was the leader with 13 receptions totaling 107 yards.

Humphreys had three receptions for a total of 47 yards, with Olsen pulling in two for 14. John Mahar had two for a total of 43.

Sequoit 'pigs'

as the drive had carried over, found Adams scrambling for his life and throwing a desperation pass into the end zone.

Although the ball fell incomplete, Lake Forest was flagged for pass interference once again, thus giving the Sequoits first and goal on the Scout eight-yard line.

Bessette appeared headed for pay dirt on the first play, but he landed short of the goal line and rolled into the end zone, thus the Sequoits had second down from the one despite the premature celebration by the Antioch fans and sideline.

After two losses resulted in Antioch being faced with a fourth and goal from their own nine-yard line, Adams rolled and completed the only pass senior end Derek Olsen caught all afternoon, as he cut back through the end zone.

Olsen's extra-point kick was wide leaving the Sequoits up 8-6 with 10:31 remaining in the game.

Suddenly the intentional safety looked awfully big.

"In fairness to George Barry, he had probably 15 to 20 seconds to make his decision," Wapon commented on the play.

"If he doesn't take it, and if the punt gets blocked or we get good field position, we're going for a game-tying six and, with the way Derek Olsen's been kicking seven points, seven for the win," he continued.

"It was a sound decision," he added. "It just happened to turn out in our favor."

Lake Forest took the kickoff and began at its own 30-yard line to drive on the Sequoits in an attempt to regain the lead.

After getting inside the Antioch 30-yard line, the Scouts attempted a pass, their first of the drive.

Sheedlo broke up a half-back option pass which had Hoban back at quarterback pitching to Sublett—who threw downfield.

On a fourth down and eight, Lake Forest attempted a 46-yard field goal which their kicker had made a 45-yarder one week earlier against North Chicago.

The kick was too high and got caught up in the wind, falling short.

Antioch had a fourth down and inches inside its own 40-yard line which the offensive line wanted to go for it.

Wapon and his staff thought better, and with less than five minutes remaining elected to punt.

A clip against the Scouts on the return set them back on their own 22-yard line.

Three plays later, Sheedlo picked off a pass and went 40 yards on the return down the west sideline in front of the cheering Antioch fans for the game clinching touchdown.

Olsen's kick essentially put the game out of reach as the Sequoits led by nine points with 2:23 remaining in the game.

Antioch senior all-NWSC linebacker Bill Carney sealed the game as he recovered a Scout fumble on the Antioch 35-yard line after a 36-yard pass the play before quickly got the Scouts into position.

On the afternoon, Bessette had 24 carries for 93 yards rushing.

John Mahar, junior runningback, added seven attempts for a total of 30 yards, while junior Ed Silva had six for a total of 14.

In passing, Adams went over 100 yards once again as he completed 12 of 24 attempts for a total of 120 yards including one touchdown toss.

In receiving, due to Lake Forest's coverage on Antioch's number one target, three other Sequoits picked up the slack.

Silva had two receptions for a total of 12 yards, Bryan Becker five for 63 and Humphreys two for 35.

Olsen's one catch was a big one as it was a 10-yard touchdown reception which gave the Sequoits the lead.

BREAST FEEDING & CAVITIES

Q: Is there any truth in the talk that breast-feeding can cause cavities in very young children?

A: No. At one time, there was speculation that breast feeding caused milk to stagnate on and around teeth when a nursing child fell asleep, thus encouraging formation of acid and cavities. However, evidence collected from scientific studies indicates that this is highly unlikely, because a nursing baby takes the milk into the back of its mouth and swallows it immediately, allowing no time for circulation to the front of the mouth. It's more likely that taking liquids from a cup and eating some table food at about 9-12 months plays a role in cavity-formation.

To prevent cavities, mothers should brush baby teeth, use supplemental fluoride if none is in tap water, and restrict the child's intake of refined carbohydrates.

AARP learns about finances

Ruth Ryders presided at the meeting of Antioch Chapter of the American Assn. of Retired Persons (AARP) 387 on Monday, Nov. 9. There were 170 members present to hear Atty. Jock Brown, who spoke on the importance of estate planning, especially to retired persons.

He was introduced to Richard Daniels, vice-president of the State Bank of Antioch. Brown told of the importance of seeking legal help before filing a will. This can avoid the heartache and trouble that often cause family feuds when instructions for the distribution of an estate are not carried out as the deceased intended.

Later, Brown answered questions raised by the members who found his answers most informative. Daniels awarded door prizes to three lucky members who won $25 certificates for groceries.

The response to the chapter's drive for canned goods and unperishable foods was overwhelming. Food which was brought by the members filled 21 boxes. These items will be distributed for Thanksgiving to all needy families in the Antioch area in cooperation with the Antioch Community Services Organization.

A special vote of thanks is extended to John Bednarkiewicz and his committee consisting of Bob and Vicki Bock and Esther Aiani, who were responsible for the success of this most worthy cause.

Blanche Babic announced that membership dues for 1983 will be collected at the first meeting in January.

Emily Milowski was appointed as the new kitchen chairman to replace Pat Kempf, who is ill and unable to continue in this capacity.

Clara Haling, legislative chairman, read a letter received from Senator Percy regarding the override of the (Title V Funding for Senior Community Service Employment Program). This Bill was supported by AARP and passed despite the veto because of the response of the many concerned citizens who wrote letters to their congressmen asking for their support to override the veto.

President Rynders thanked Florence Johnson and all those who helped make the white elephant sale a big success.

Bock reminded members that their donations for Christmas gifts for the Lake Villa and Gurnee nursing homes should be brought to the meeting on Nov. 23.

On this same date, Ceil Geist, chairman of the ways and means committee, will be conducting the annual prize giving. Articles for this should also be brought to the meeting.

DECEMBER DATES TO REMEMBER: Dec. 10... Shopping trip to Milwaukee. Tickets are still available. See Ruth Ryders or Glenn Petersen; Dec. 14... Christmas party at Windjammer Restaurant. Tickets are now being sold.

It was announced that the Senior Center in Antioch will soon be serving low calorie and diabetic meals to the senior citizens. Call (312) 395-7120 for information.

Play host to sailor this Thanksgiving

This year, many of the 16,000 men and women undergoing training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center will be unable to return home for the Thanksgiving holiday.

This will be the first time most of these young men and women have spent the holidays away from their families.

Each year, the commander of the naval training center solicits assistance from the surrounding communities in finding families to host these young men and women on Thanksgiving day.

Host families are responsible for picking up their guest and returning them at the appropriate time. Families may host as many servicemen as they wish. Many communities sponsor whole bus loads as a group project.

Anyone wishing to host a sailor for Thanksgiving should contact Lt. Lynn Cantrell at (312) 688-2430 between 7:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. or (414) 961-0570 after 6 p.m.
